  7. QSI shall furnish to the Service Provider with each payment of an Approved Claim a statement showing the amount of the Approved Claim paid in an electronic format through a secure web portal.
  8. QSI may from time to time upon not less than ninety (90) days notice to the Service Provider amend any of the provisions of this Agreement.
  9. This Agreement may be terminated at any time by not less than sixty (60) days notice given by either party to the other.

    - (d) when similar benefits are available to a Covered Person under more than one benefits plan, the amount payable under a Plan on account of Benefits or Extra Benefits will be limited in the discretion of QSI to the extent that the total amount available under all coverages will not exceed one hundred (100%) per cent of the actual expenses.
  11. Any dispute or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement or its breach between or by either or both of the parties shall be determined by a single arbitrator agreeable to both parties. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties and their respective legal representatives, successors and assigns. The arbitration shall be governed by the Arbitration Act of Alberta.
  12. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, QSI may terminate this Agreement forthwith if the Service Provider breaches any provision of this Agreement.
